1 PACKING PRO

Take the guesswork and stress out of packing by using this app that gives you some expert list-making assistance based on who, where and for how long you are travelling.

Packing Pro by Quinn Genzel ($4.49 AUD)

2 FOURSQUARE

Enjoy the locals' dining recommendations by using this app to find nearby eateries by theme and budget.

Foursquare by Foursquare Labs Inc (Free)

3 WORD REFERENCE

This is my favourite online translator and translating app. Simple to use and always gives you options based on the different meanings a word can have.

WordReference Dictionary by WordReference.com (Free)

4 TRIP ADVISOR

Review free quality city guides and use the customer reviews and unbiased photos to decide what to visit. You can even use this app off-line.

Trip Advisor by TripAdvisor LLC (Free)

5 MAPS.ME

Check out detailed maps when you visit regional France. You won't need internet access to use this app.

Maps.Me by My Com (Free)

6 ENTRAIN

Scientifically researched, this app can help reduce the effects of jetlag so you can enjoy every minute of your trip even straight after you land!

EnTrain by The University of Michigan (Free)

7 WHATSAPP

Now you can stay in touch with family and friends when you're travelling just using Wi-Fi. You can send photos, videos and sound clips.

WhatsApp Messenger by WhatsApp Inc (Free)

8 BONJOURNAL

Beautifully designed, simple and easy to use travel journal. You can choose to share with loved ones during your travels or export as PDF once you get home.

Bonjournal by Bonjournal LLC (Free)

I really do hope this little round-up of my recommended apps helps make your trip to France even more magical. Bon voyage! Devy x
